

12 NEXT STEPS

The next step of the planning process will be to conduct public outreach. This will include:

- Deploying a survey for riders and non-riders
- Doing social media posts to notify the public about this project
- A visioning session with the board
- A meeting with the Transportation Advisory Committee, which includes members who represent the community and local and regional agencies